HOLD YOUR CORN.

The Pointer Thrown Out to Put It in the Locker Until Poreign Demand Puts Prices Up, Then Sell It.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 2.-The Morning News says that a rough draft of an article dvising the farmers of the country to old their corn for higher prices has been made, and that it is expected to appear in fall in the next issue of the Farmers' Voice. It says hold until the foreign demand puts prices up, then to sell only so much as is necessary to supply that de-mand, and again lock up the cribs until prices go up again.

Brokers are aware that the foreign demand will be 30 per cent greater than last year, when $8.377,955 bushels were taken abroad from all American ports, which will make at a moderate estimate 105,334,941 bushels for this year. Owing to the shortnumers for this year. Owing to the short-ness of the wheat crop abroad, these figures are probably on the safe side by many mill-ions. The months of the heaviest export dur-ing the year 1892 will be in February, March, April, May and June. The present Euro-pean crop will supply the needs of foreigners until after January, when the demand will be made on America. If the farmer ollows his usual habit of hurrying his corn market during November and December. will miss this foreign demand, and the oker who buys and stores this grain will make the money.

HE KILLED A NEGRO.

William Brewer Tells His Story to Chief Jordan.

Special to the Gazette. Carveston, Tex., Oct. 2.—Chief of Po-lice Jordan noticed a young man acting sus-pictously on the street this evening, and took him into custody. At the police sta-tion he gave the name of William Brower, are twenty-two, and confessed that he had yed at that place, and on the above date he pears had assaulted and beaten him with a club, whereupon he secured a re-olver and shot his assailant, killing him stantly. He then fied to Seima, Ala, and instantly. He then fied to Seima, Ala., and finally came to Galveston, arriving here a few days ago. Brewer stoutly insists that the killing was done in self-defense, and gives as his reason for leaving Cleburne that the negaces there threatened to deal with him in a summary manner if they cought him. The Alabama authorities have been advised of the arrest, and the prisoner will be held to await their orders.

TEXAS FAIRS.

ALVORD, WISE COUNTY, Oct. 1.—On next Tuesday the fourth annual exhibit of the Wise county fair will open at this place, and the prospects are as flattering as could be wished for a display that shall far exceed in its scope and artistic arrangement anything heretofore attempted in Northwest Texas. A band of Indians from the Comanche tribe—that tribe whose blood-curding war whoops in former days startled from his slumbers the hardy pioneer who was strug-gling to reclaim this section from the wilds of savagery and at whose belts hung sus-pended more than one of the scalps of our early settlers, will be on hand to induct our people into the mysteries of the Indian war dance and ball game.

The first and second days will be devoted to the display and awarding of premiums on ladies' work, poultry, hogs, cattle and stock generally.

The third day, Thursday, will be Alliance day, and an immense attendance is expected. Kies of Kansas, Evan Jones of Texas and other noted Alliance leaders will address the people on the issues of the day, as seen from the People's party standpoint.

The secretary of the Fort Worth chamber of commerce will also address the farmers on the importance of the growing of rye and barriey.

Friday, the fourth day, will be Old Soldier's day, and all old soldiers, both Confederate and Federal, are cordially invited to be on hand for a grand muster and parade. On this day the cause of Democracy will be represented by such able men and orators as Bailey, Chilton and Culberson. One of the important features of this day will be an oldfashioned free dinner on the grounds.

Saturday, the closing day, is School-children's day. Pupils of all schools together with the faculty will be admitted for half fare and it is the purpose of the management to make this a day of special interest to both teachers and pupils.

to both teachers and pupils.

The attractions this season will be varied and unique, and the weather being favorable, a grand success is a certainty. Excursion rates on railroads and everything pertaining to the convenience and comfort of visitors will be provided by the management.
